National Popular Vote (NPV) backers claim their plan will “Make Every Voter EQUAL”. WRONG! In fact, as this graphic shows, the voters in the States are WAY better off with Electoral College protections. The NPV does exactly the OPPOSITE of what’s promised.

It actually makes voters across the country UNEQUAL! Why? Because this poorly-written NPV scheme is NOT a national law, but is a contract among only 20 to maybe 23 States, whose voters are made very UNEQUAL to the voters in the majority of the States that did not join the contract! (When governments into contracts with each other, they’re called “compacts”.) It does this, by using a DIFFERENT voter base in choosing the Electors in each of the NPV Compact States.

THE NPV States use a nationwide popular vote count, as computed individually by each compact State’s chief election officer. They do NOT use the Statewide vote count in their own State! That vote outcome is IGNORED! Every one of the NON-NPV States – which will be the majority of the States – simply continue to count their OWN voters’ votes to decide which Electors will be chosen in that State to cast their State’s Votes.

Voters in ALL 50 States decide who only the NPV States Vote for.

VOTERS in ALL STATES DECIDE the Electors Only in Each of the NPV States***

Selected States Highlighted

Voters In	Popular Votes	Decision %
California	17,440,500	- 11.0%

Michigan	5,539,300	- 3.5%
Ohio	5,922,200	- 3.7%
Minnesota	3,277,200	- 2.1%
Maine	819,500	- 0.5%
ALL Other States	106,473,300	- 38.4%
U.S. Total	158,550,300	- 100.0%

\ But it's enough to always elect the President.*

EXAMPLE – When Michigan lawmakers choose to join the NPV Compact, MICHIGANDERS will then make up only 3.5% of the decision of what happens with MICHIGAN’s Electors (and for whom they cast Michigan’s votes)! In OHIO – not a Compact member – only OHIO voters will determine which of OHIO’s Electors are chosen. In Michigan, OHIO voters will decide 3.7% of MICHIGAN’s decision and Michigan voters will decide 3.5% of MICHIGAN’s decision. In Ohio, Michigan voters will decide 0.0% of OHIO’s decision and Ohio voters will decide 100.0% of OHIO’s decision.

National Popular Vote – Makes Voters UNEQUAL.
